To Whom It May Concern:

Re: Mediation Offices of Steven Rosenberg

This office has conducted several mediations before Steven Rosenberg and in each case they have resulted in successful agreements between the parties. In particular, a recent mediation involved a father-son dispute that was highly emotional. Mr. Rosenberg was able to get the parties to set aside their emotions and resolve the matter in a fashion that was beneficial to both of the parties involved.

Mr. Rosenberg is noted for the educational courses he provides on alternate dispute resolution and is highly regarded in the Bay Area for his skills as a successful negotiator and mediator.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES B. MCKENNEY
